The background of the slide features a close-up, slightly blurred image of a rolled-up scroll, likely made of parchment or papyrus. The scroll is unrolled on the left and right sides, revealing Hebrew text written in a cursive script. The central area of the slide is white, providing a clear space for the main text.

11 I know what I'm doing.
I have it all planned out—
plans to take care of you, not abandon you, plans to give you the future you hope for.

5 With all your heart you must trust the LORD and not your own judgment. 6 Always let him lead you, and he will clear the road for you to follow.

PROVERBS 3:5-6
CONTEMPORARY ENGLISH VERSION

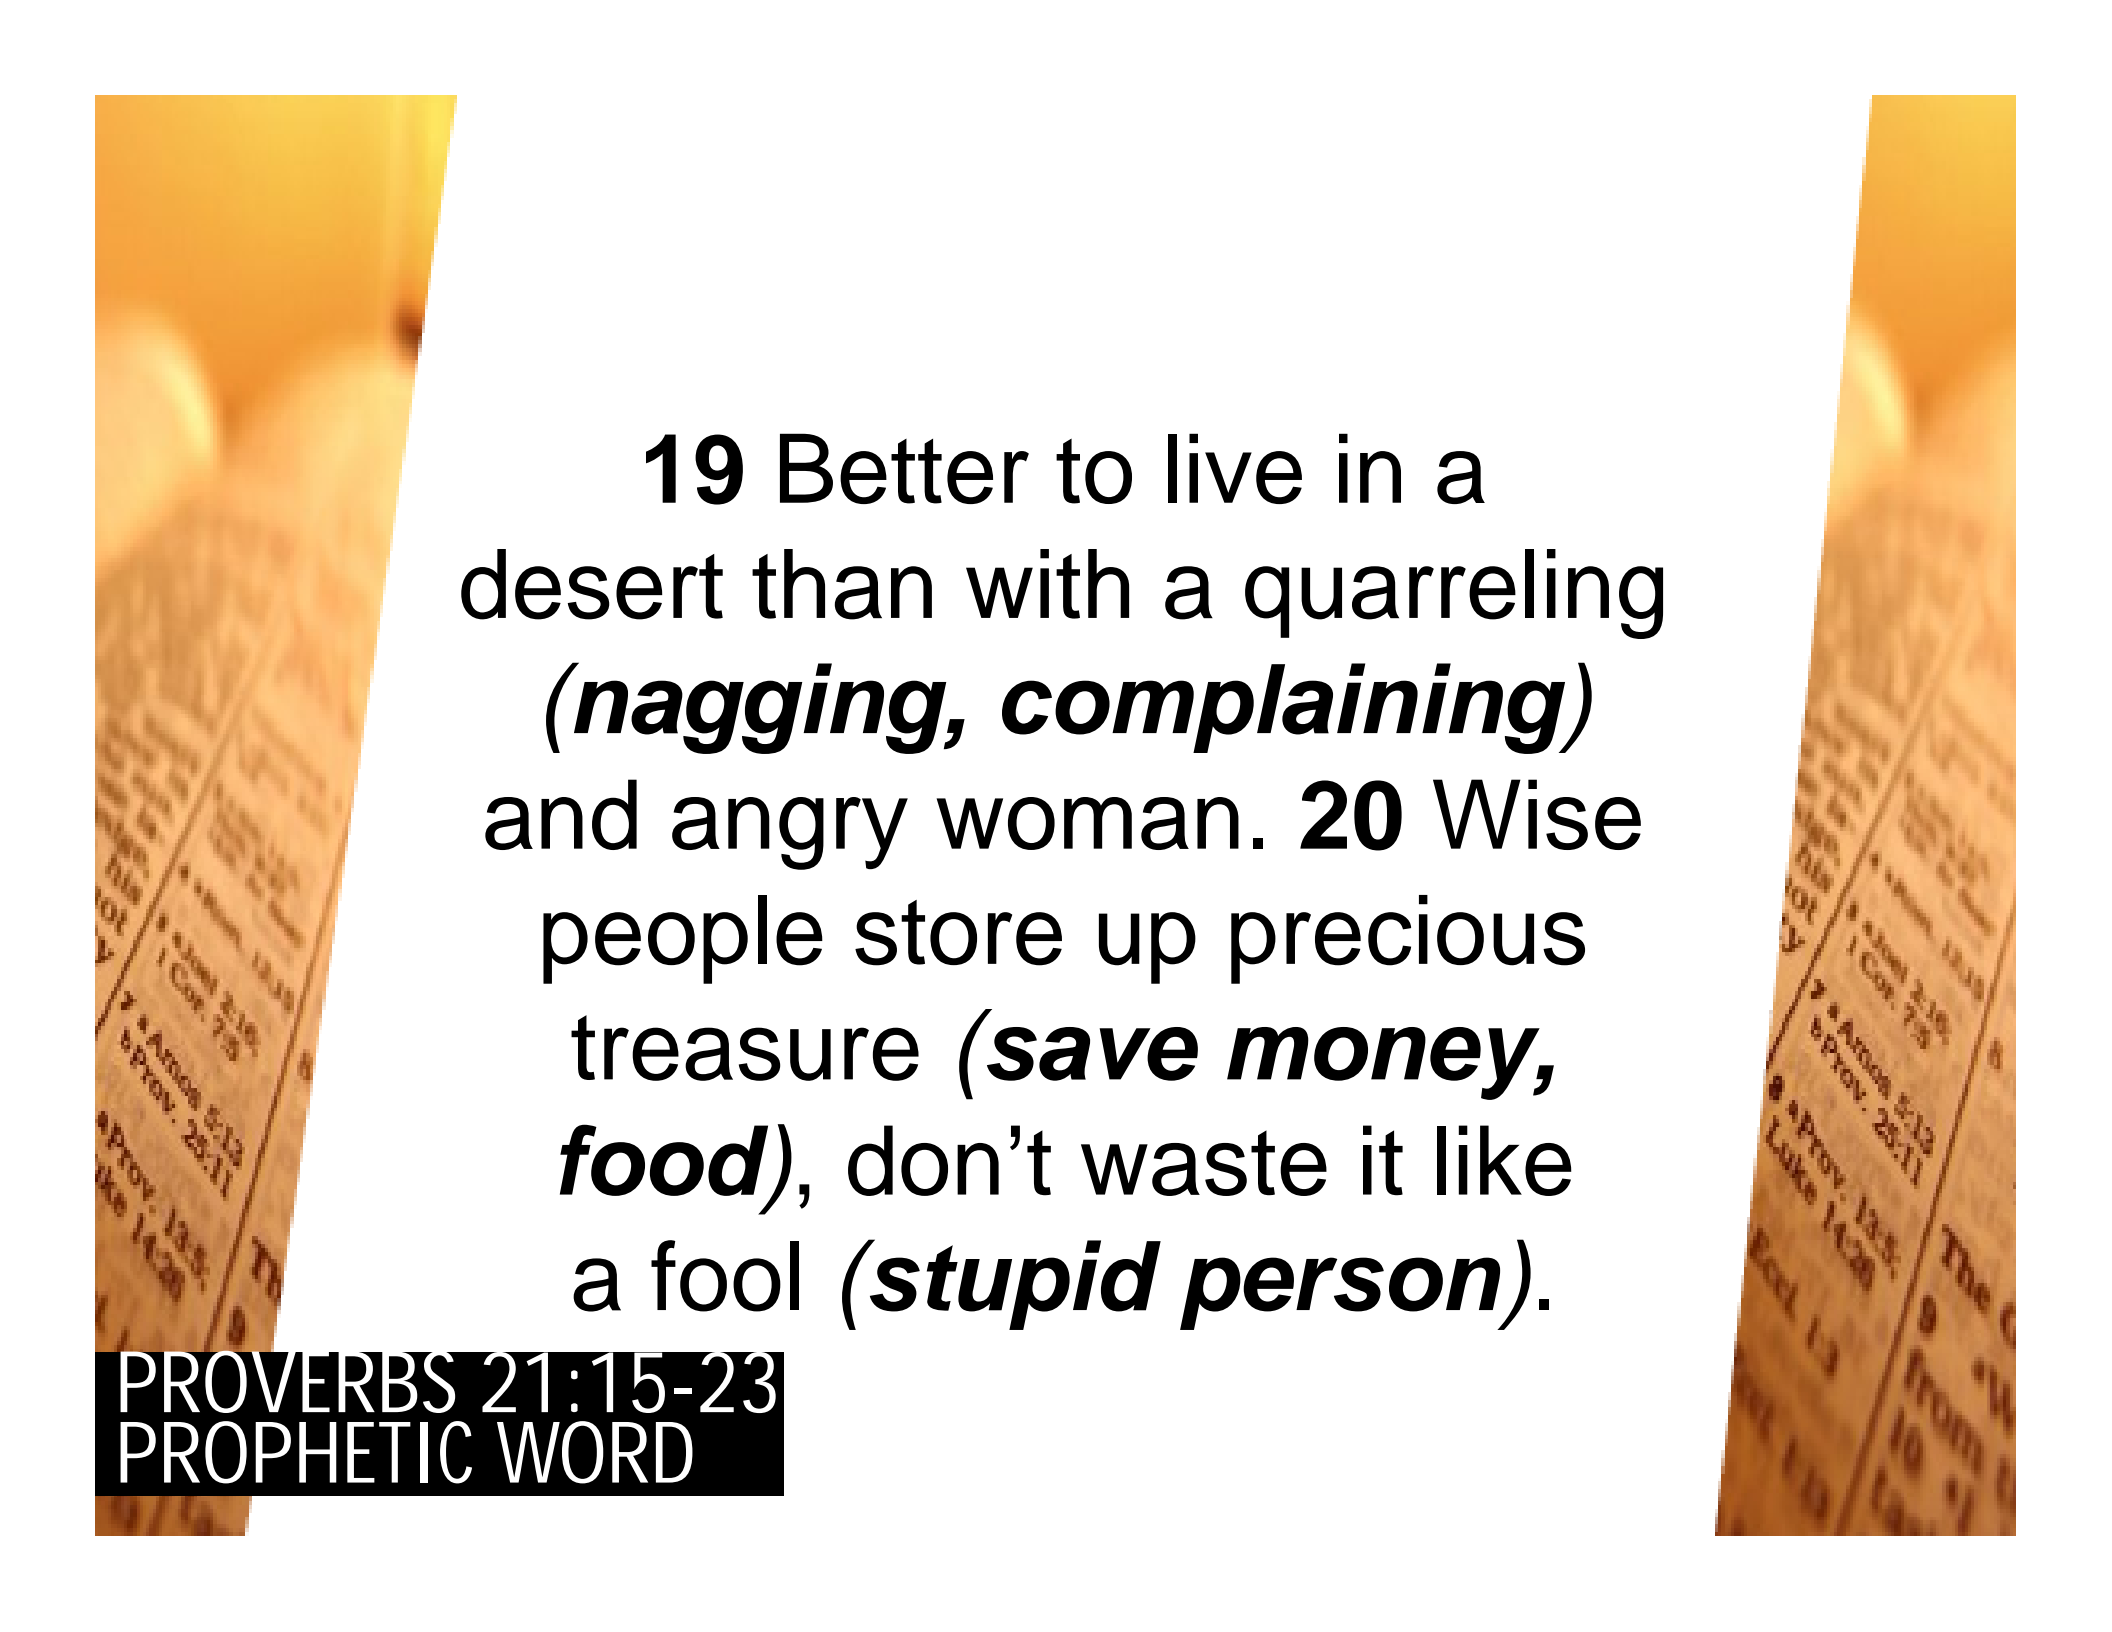

15 When justice is done,
good people are happy,
but troublemakers (people
who intentionally stir up trouble) are brought to despair (wearry hopeless, critical, violently out of control). 16
If you stop using good sense,
you will find yourself dead.

PROVERBS 21:15-23
PROPHETIC WORD

17 Heavy drinkers (drunks) and those who live only for pleasure will lose all they have. 18 God's people will escape (God will provide the way of escape), but all who are wicked will pay the price (suffering, may financially be ruined).

PROVERBS 21:15-23
PROPHETIC WORD

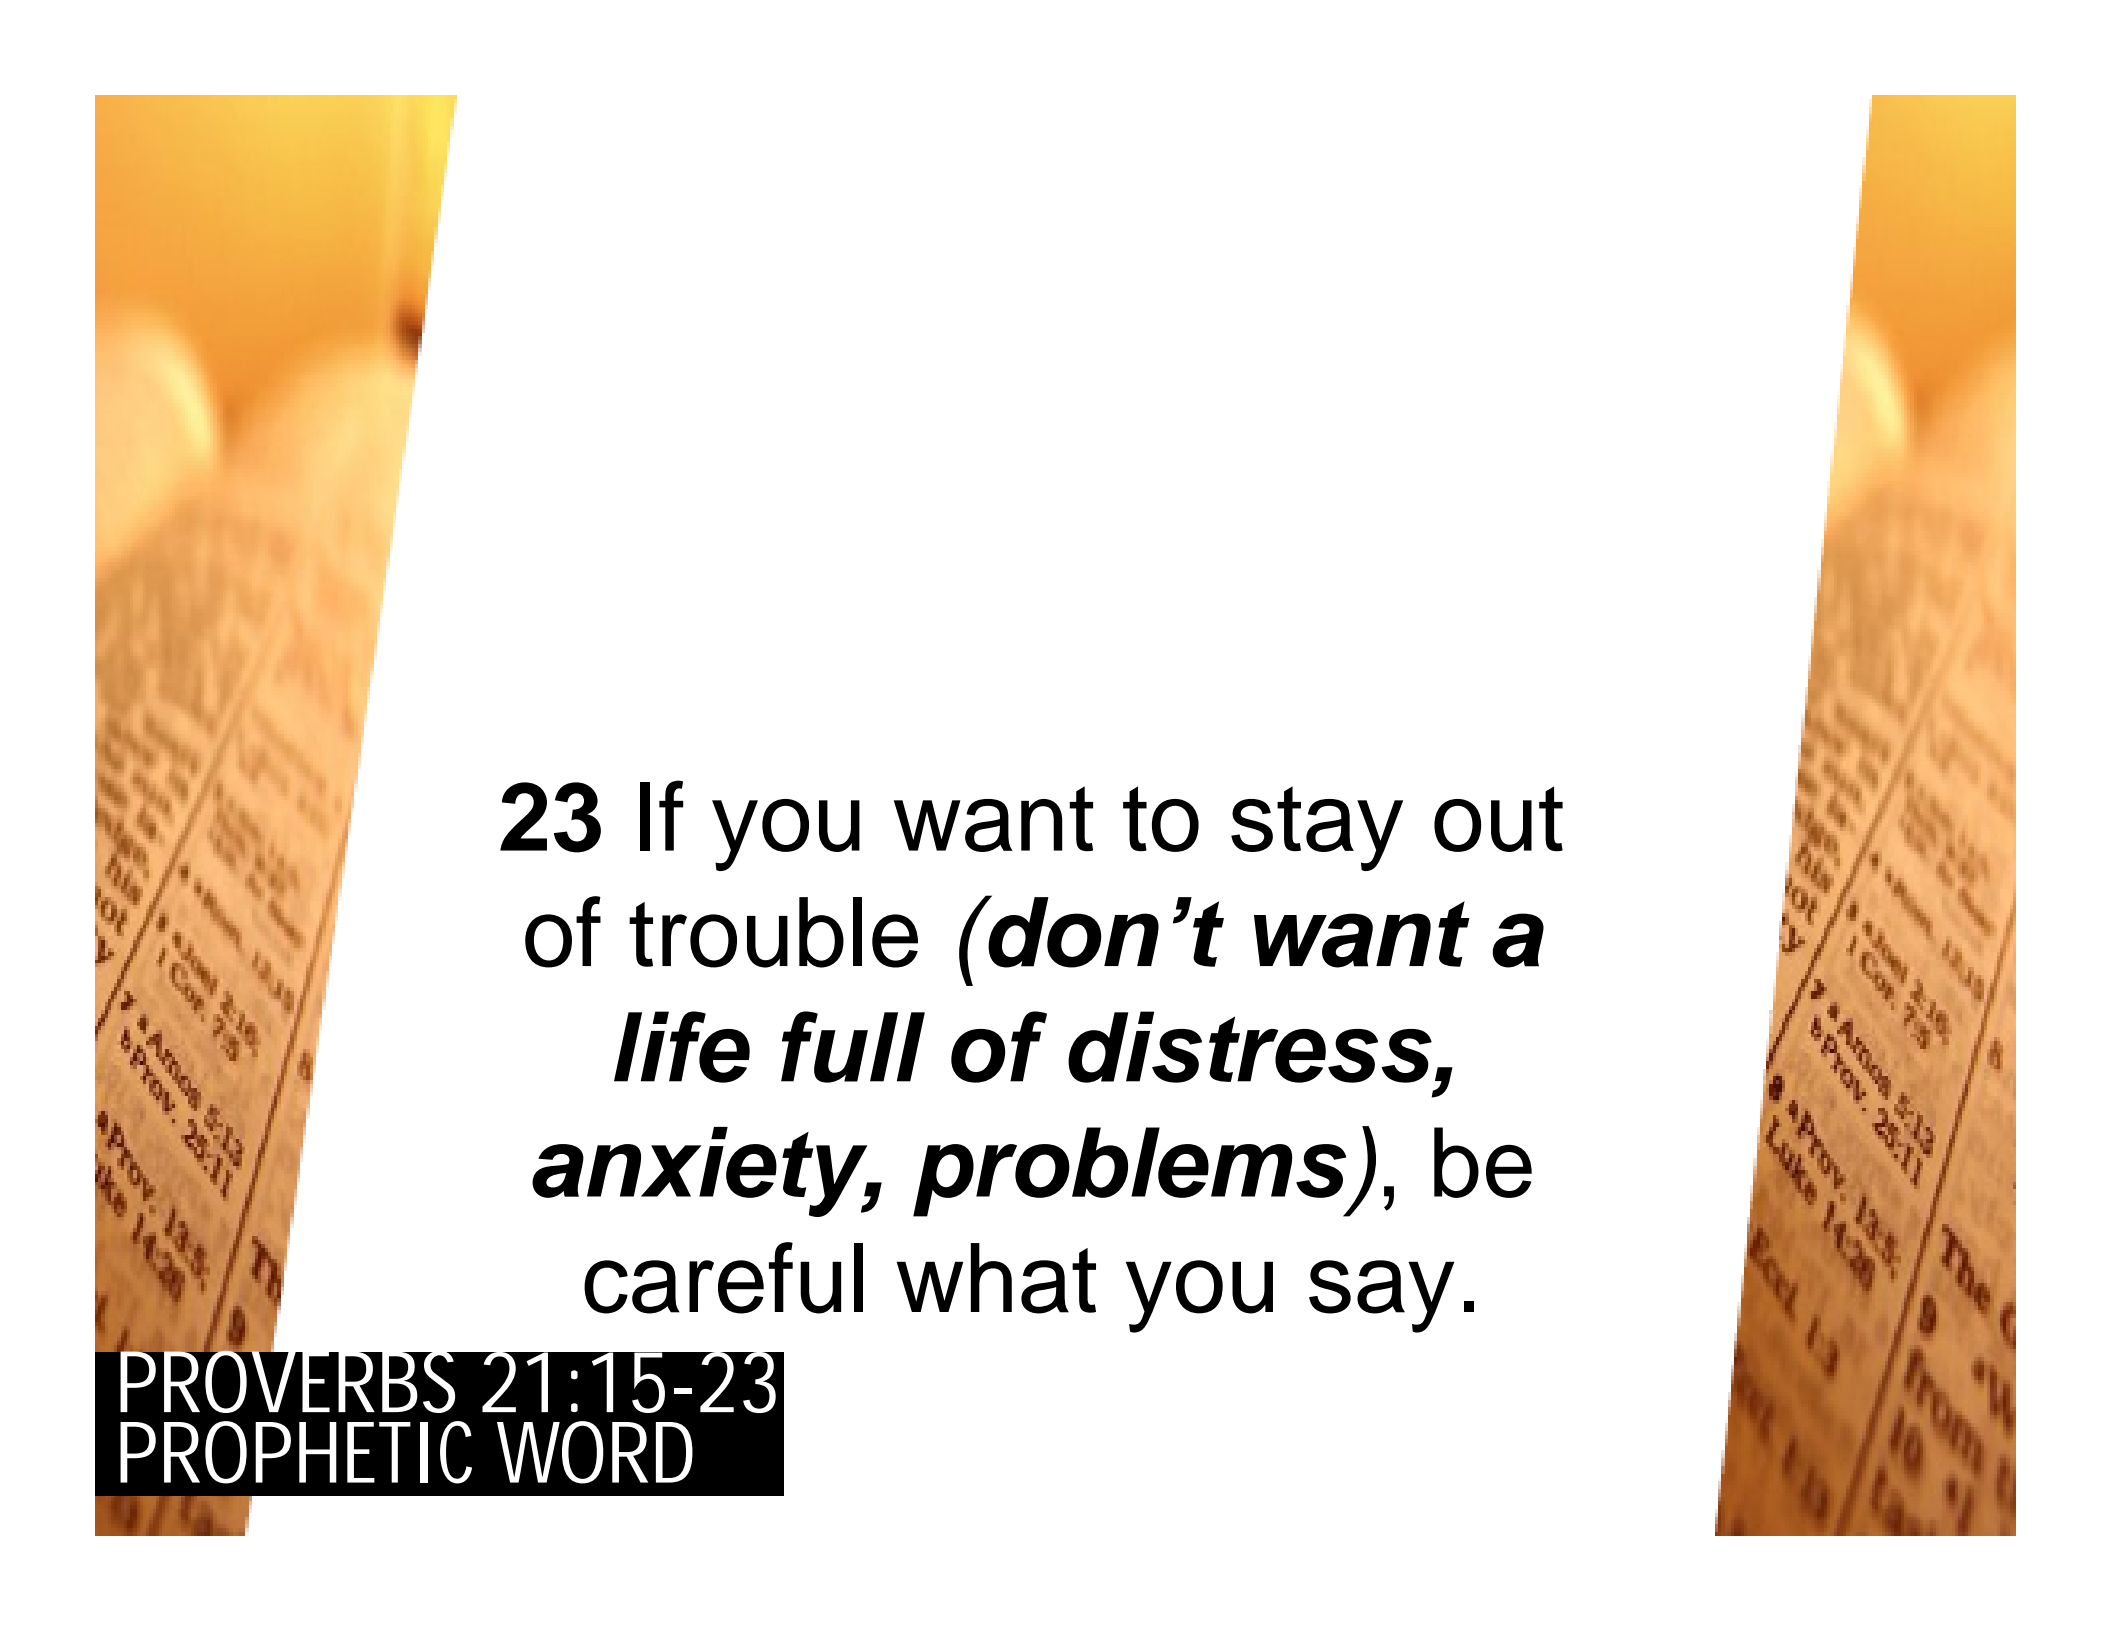

19 Better to live in a desert than with a quarreling (nagging, complaining) and angry woman. 20 Wise people store up precious treasure (save money, food), don't waste it like a fool (stupid person).

PROVERBS 21:15-23
PROPHETIC WORD

21 Be kind and honest
(merciful, full of integrity)
and you will live a long life;
others will respect you and treat you fairly (show you honor). 22 One wise person can defeat a city full of soldiers and capture their fortress.

PROVERBS 21:15-23
PROPHETIC WORD

23 If you want to stay out of trouble (don't want a life full of distress, anxiety, problems), be careful what you say.
